

House Resolution No. 3498

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who bring glory and honor to themselves and to this great state through the excellence of their achievements in helping students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and productive members of society; and

Whereas, Corinne Royal of Kansas City has attained considerable distinction as a Special Education teacher for the Functional Classroom at Park Hill High School in the Park Hill School District which provides educational opportunities to nearly ten thousand students through the expertise of approximately seven hundred certificated staff in fifteen separate institutions; and

Whereas, on July 1, 2005, Corinne Royal will draw her professional labors to a close in well-deserved retirement after twenty-eight years of service; and

Whereas, a former Class Within a Class, fourth-grade, and Cross-categorical teacher, Corinne Royal serves on the Special Education Advisory Committee and the Professional Development Committee and is a former Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, Corinne Royal brought to the Park Hill School District a wealth of expertise she had garnered as an L.D. Resource teacher for two years in the West Platte School District, board member of the Platte County Board of Services, and member of the Council for Exceptional Children; and

Whereas, Corinne Royal is the beloved wife of Vic Royal and the loving mother of Robin Fitzgerald and Terry Royal; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to acknowledge momentous occasions in the lives and careers of such illustrious Missouri citizens as Corinne Royal:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career enjoyed by Corinne Royal with the Park Hill School District and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Corinne Royal of Kansas City, Missouri.
